Tartars Come From Behind for Victory

Torrance High pushed across two runs in the seventh inning Tuesday to score a come-from-behind 4-3 baseball victory over Leuzinger at Torrance Park. The win gave Will Boerger's nine a 7-7 Bay League record.

The Tartars brought their 1958 season to a close yesterday with a home tilt against loop champion Inglewood.

It was the Olympians third loss to the locals, who trailed the invaders 3-2 entering the seventh and final frame.

After walks to pinch hitters Terry Taylor and Bobby Farrington, and a free pass to Joe Montgomery after one out, Olympian shortstop Jay Wilson first dropped Lee Day's routine pop fly ball and then threw wild at the plate letting the tying run score, then catcher Jack McFarlin tossed the ball past the first baseman in an attempted rundown on Day, allowing Farrington to scamper across with the winning run.

Three Hitter

Tartar hurler Paul Moir twirled a three hitter at Leuzinger to gain credit for his second Bay League win against 3 setbacks.

The senior right-hander grooved a home run pitch to Dave Acosta to open the fourth stanza, the ball sailing over the right field wall to temporarily send the Olympians ahead, 3-2.

The visitors evened the count in the third inning on a single, a pair of walks, and an error.

Torrance drew first blood in the initial frame when Joe Montgomery scored on Russ Vanderpools double, and the rangy shortstop scored from third on brother Ray's long fly to left.

Ray returned to THS' lineup after missing one game due to a severe spike injury suffered at Santa Monica last week. Playing with several stitches on his knee, he collected one single in three plate appearances.

The Tartar horsehiders had to pull the rarest play in baseball in the Leuzinger half of the seventh put out the Olympian fire, a triple play cutting short a bases loaded rally.

Shallow Fly

With the sacks jammed, Tim Watkins, center fielder, pulled in a shallow fly ball and cut down McFarlin attempting to score from third on a perfect "strike" throw to catcher Ken Pevic, who made the tag and rifled to third baseman Day who tagged losing pitcher George Ziemer sliding in.

Zierner, although giving way to Fred Adams and Terry Birdsall in the seventh, was receipted with the loss, giving up only three hits.

Line Score:

Leuzinger	0	0	2	1	0	0	3	3	2
Torrance	2	0	0	0	2	4	3	2

Zierner, Adams (7), Birdsall (7), and McFarlin; Moir and Pevic.
